

Friday, December 26, 2003

Pasadena bowls over visitors

12 things to do and see while in town for the big game

By Susan R. Pollack / The Detroit News

If you're among the more than 25,000 University of Michigan fans bound for the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day — or if you plan a California trip this winter — there's plenty to do in and around Pasadena. Call the city's annual Holiday Hotline, (626) 793-9911, to check events before and after the big game. And take along this list of Pasadena's top 12 attractions.

Shopping/nightlife

Old Pasadena, a 22-block historic area with 120 trendy B. Luu, Armani Exchange and Illuminations) and 80 restaurants is the place to be at night, according to Leann Lampe, spokesperson for the

Pasadena Convention & Visitor's Bureau